MELODIC & PROGRESSIVE TECHNO

LIVE

The show is raised in the fire of live performances.
It is composed of productions and remixes with a recipe that only Clain has. It already sounds like promising echoes

Soaked in high emotions, its atmosphere varies from dark tons to a dynamic and powerful melodic techno

Clain plays and mixes various universes.
It is about an efficient and energetic music
created to burn sneakers and make people dance until dawn

A sound looking like nights full of surprises

EXOTIC HOUSE

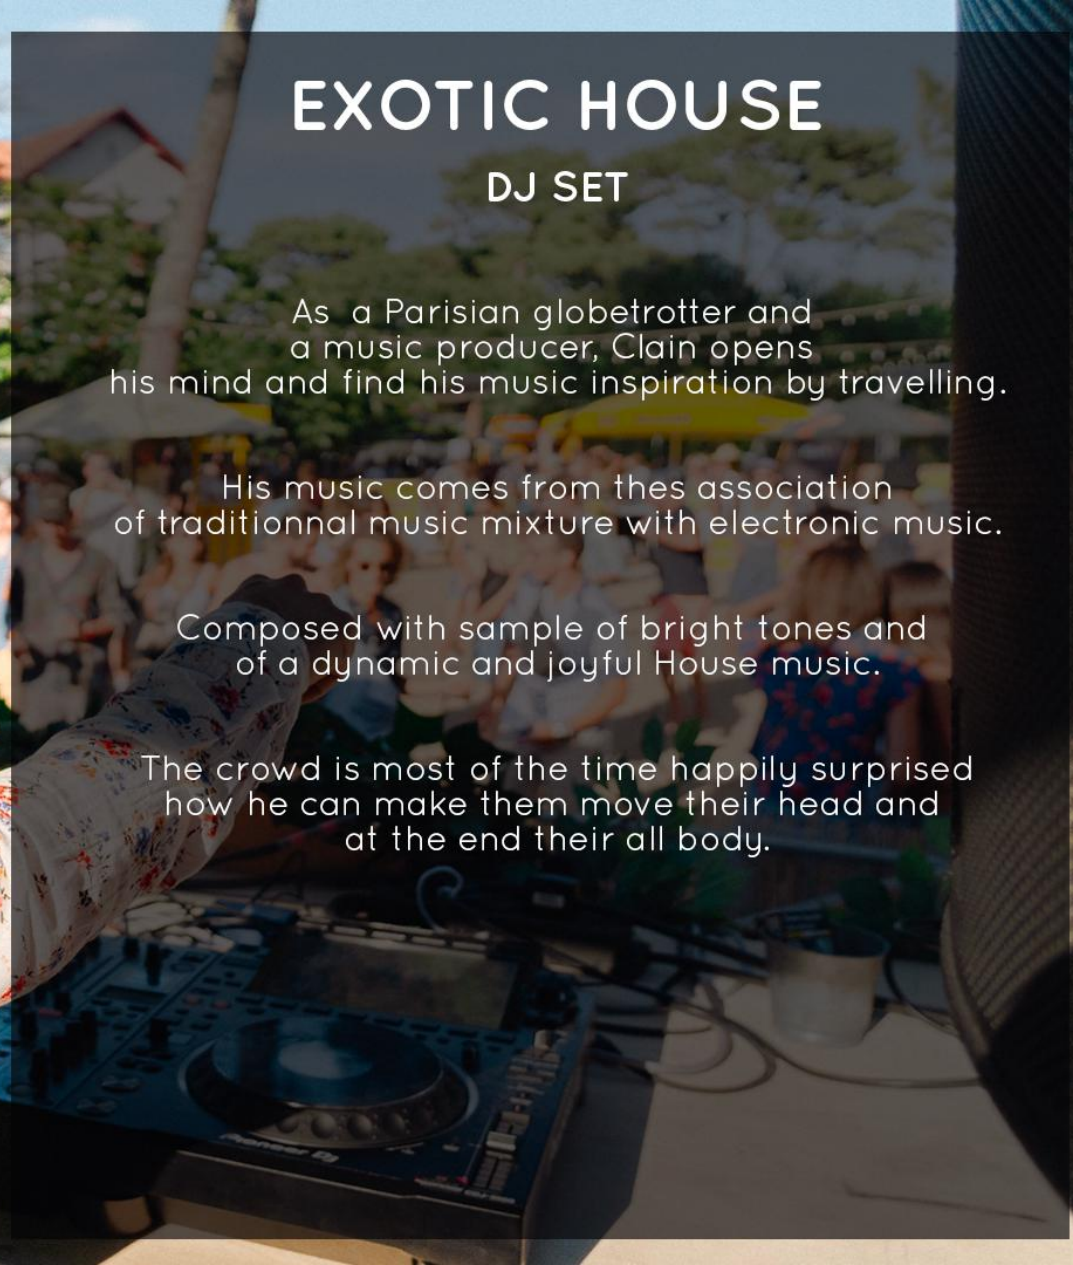

DJ SET

As a Parisian globetrotter and a music producer, Clain opens his mind and find his music inspiration by travelling.

His music comes from the association of traditional music mixture with electronic music.

Composed with sample of bright tones and of a dynamic and joyful House music.

The crowd is most of the time happily surprised how he can make them move their head and at the end their all body.

BIO

Born in the mid 80's, Clain grew up in Paris. A musician since his childhood, he has also studied sound and image processing and worked as an engineer.

The trip whether musical or cultural, has always been something that matters to him and Clain reveals different incarnations during his musical or audiovisual performance.

Social networks have been an integral part of our daily life for several years, he quickly became a video director in order to develop and share his projects.

The drone, which is booming today, seduced him and he chose to add a string to his bow by becoming a professional pilot.

Clain's spirit of adventure translates a life lived a hundred miles per hour. As a dandy 2.0, his performances are the result and witness to a thirst for the new and the unexpected.

Expression of his passion and his enthusiasm for live performances, he aspires to always share his achievements
